

Morocco Royal Tour 2025

A 14th edition firmly rooted in world-class sport

Press release - Rabat, Wednesday 21 May 2025

From 18 September to 5 October 2025, the Morocco Royal Tour will embark on its fourteenth edition, kicking off in Tétouan, then moving on to Rabat and concluding in El Jadida. Three legs, three CSI 4*W a highly anticipated Nations Cup and three CSI 1*... with the same unwavering ambition: to welcome the very best of international showjumping under optimal sporting and technical conditions.

Now regarded as one of the most esteemed circuits on the global equestrian calendar, the Morocco Royal Tour returns with a rich programme: 27 4* classes, including 13 counting for the Longines FEI World Ranking, three CSI4*-W Grand Prix qualifying for the World Cup, 18 CSI1 classes, and the CSIO4-W Nations Cup in Rabat*, the highlight on the federal facilities of Rabat.

Who will succeed Saudi Arabia, last year's Nations Cup winner? The answer will come on 24 September in Rabat's main arena – which, like El Jadida's, has been completely resurfaced for this 2025 edition. A renewed technical standard, geared entirely towards performance, is set to once again draw top-tier nations from across the globe.

Competition will be fierce, notably with the expected return of Emanuele Gaudiano (Italy), one of the MRT's most loyal competitors, who dominated the last two seasons by winning four of the six CSI4* Grand Prix events held in 2023 and 2024, riding his brilliant Nikolaj de Music.

For the world's elite and amateur riders competing in the CSI1* classes, the Morocco Royal Tour remains a 'magical interlude' combining top-level sport, warm hospitality and a deep equestrian heritage.

Concluding in El Jadida as an indoor event at the Horse Show, the tour offers an ideal transition between the outdoor season and the indoor competitions. It is also the venue for the Grand Prix of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, remains the crown jewel of the tour, offering €164,000 in prize money, on par with a CSI5* Grand Prix. A spectacular finale in a prestigious setting.
