A STRONG START LIST IN RABAT

The Morocco Royal Tour continues to build momentum as it heads into its second week of competition in Rabat, with a particularly strong line-up of riders.

In the CSIO4*-W, Belgium will notably be able to rely on the highly experienced Jérôme Guéry, runner-up at the 2022 World Championships. Brazil will be represented by some of its top riders, including Yuri Mansur, who is currently in excellent form, as well as Luiz Felipe Neto de Azevedo.

A loyal supporter of the Moroccan circuit, France will field Arthur Le Vot, Alix Ragot, Cyril Bouvard and Jeanne Sadran, who finished fourth in the CSIO4*-W Prix de S.A.R. le Prince Héritier Moulay El Hassan* in Rabat. Antoine Ermann and Olivier Perreau, members of the French team at the most recent World Championships, will also be competing.

Greece's Ioli Mytilineou, runner-up in the Tetouan Grand Prix, Italy's Emanuele Camilli and Spain's Armando Trapote will also be in action. Switzerland's Anthony Bourquard will be looking to continue his winning form. Following his victory in the Tetouan Grand Prix, he will undoubtedly be eager to make it two in a row. Among those joining him, Alexandra Amar and Edouard Schmitz will also be flying the red-and-white Swiss flag.

Germany, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Portugal, Saudi Arabia, Ukraine and Ireland will also have riders competing in the arena at Dar Es Salam.

Competing on home soil and in front of their home crowd, Morocco will be the most represented nation, with 17 riders. Among them are the experienced El Ghali Boukaa, Abdeslam Bennani Smires, Ali Al Ahrach and Abdelkebir Ouaddar, as well as Jad Guerraoui, in whom the Moroccan federation has high hopes.

Taking advantage of the three weeks of competition, many CSIO4*-W riders are using the tour as an opportunity to bring along new mounts or young horses still in training. The CSI2* will therefore see some of the world's leading riders go head-to-head with the next generation of talent.

About the Morocco Royal Tour

Founded in 2010, the Morocco Royal Tour has established itself over the years as one of the leading circuits on the international equestrian calendar and remains the only show jumping circuit in the world staged over three consecutive weekends in three different cities. For more than fifteen years, it has embodied the Kingdom of Morocco's ambition to develop top-level equestrian competitions and secure a lasting presence on the international sporting stage. From its earliest editions, the Morocco Royal Tour has stood out for the quality of its venues, the excellence of its organisation and a strong identity that blends Moroccan equestrian tradition with international sporting standards. Over time, the circuit has continued to evolve, both sportingly and structurally, attracting year after year some of the world's leading riders and horses. The Tour's unique format is built around a coherent sporting progression across three complementary stages. It begins in Tétouan, at the Royal Guard Stud Farm, a symbol of the Kingdom's equestrian heritage. It then moves to Rabat, the capital of the Kingdom and home of the Royal Moroccan Federation for Equestrian Sports, notably host of the prestigious Nations Cup. The grand finale takes place in El Jadida, at the Exhibition Park, during the Salon du Cheval, with the Grand Prix of His Majesty King Mohammed VI as the highlight of the circuit. Beyond competition, the Morocco Royal Tour is part of a long-term vision aimed at structuring and promoting the Moroccan equestrian sector. Through its progressive development, the continuous elevation of its competition levels and its unwavering commitment to excellence, the circuit actively contributes to Morocco's sporting, cultural and institutional influence on the international equestrian stage.
